Ribblehead Viaduct Walk

Sunday 26 July 2009

Enjoy the unique experience of walking over the 24 arches of the famous Ribblehead Viaduct and celebrate the 20th Anniversary of the announcement of the saving of the Settle Carlisle Railway

Admission to the walk by pre-paid ticket only

Cost £15.00 per person for adults and children 14 years & over

To meet the safety conditions, children under the age of 14 years and people with impaired mobility will be unable to undertake the walk.

Very limited car parking is available at Ribblehead. Car parking is available at Horton-in-Ribblesdale and other sites at a cost of £2 per vehicle and free coach transfer is provided between the car parks and Ribblehead and return.

Complete the application form overleaf.

More details are available at www.settlecarlisle.co.uk including terms and conditions of the walk and a limitation of liability for the organisations providing the walk and associated facilities

Tom Brown, Carl King in ITV's Emmerdale, will attend the event at 11am.

Proceeds from the event will be used to support the work of the Settle Carlisle Railway Trust in restoring and maintaining the former railway buildings along the line.
